

It's our responsibility "Animals matter in Disaster"

Five Freedoms for Animal

Freedom from hunger and thirst

Freedom from discomfort

Freedom from pain, injury and disease

Freedom from fear and distress

Freedom to express normal behaviour

Animal Care

Provide adequate balanced feed to your animals and identify alternate feed sources to cope with emergencies.

Provide adequate clean drinking water to your animals at regular intervals and identify alternate water sources to cope with emergencies.

Avoid exposing animals to extreme weather conditions and provide appropriate shelter.

Consult with your veterinary doctor and vaccinate / de-worm your animals as and when necessary

Isolate sick animals from the herd to prevent the spread of disease and cater to it's needs.

Livestock Emergency Management

Handle livestock quietly, calmly and in a manner they are familiar.

Listen to disaster updates, if necessary, evacuate animals to safer areas with emergency kits.

In emergencies, means of identification of your animals will help you to identify and reunite with them.

In emergencies, if possible, keep familiar animals in herds to avoid fear and anxiety.

After disaster, assist organizations to assess the impact on animals and distribute relief.

Preparedness

Keep items stored in a sturdy container or bag.

Maintain emergency supplies in a common place to easily evacuate along with your animals in emergencies.

Make use of locally available materials to set up temporary shelters for you and your animals.

Assemble first aid kit to offer immediate assistance to the injured / sick animals and consult a veterinary doctor.

Stock adequate feed and water to cater the need of your animals during emergencies.
